Mrs. J. C. West,
St. Andrews,
Florida.

Dear Mrs. West:

As matters stand now, it looks as if I might be free to go to Florida for some time this Autumn and Winter. At any rate, I shall be able to go for a very short visit soon. Will you please get the abstract for the shore property owned by Mrs. Rhodes Braughton east, and have not been paying attention to business.

Sincerely yours,
Cm. E. T. Wright.

P.S. I should like that Mr. Wm. L. Wilson of Panama City should look up the title to the property, and make out the abstract. C. E. B.

St. Andrews,

My dear Mrs. West:
This letter is being written at a very late date concerning my purchase of the Rhodes place which was so long pending, and for which I yet have no deed, neither of which, however, is due to any fault of yours.
The first letter which I wrote you stating that I would buy the Rhodes place, was returned to me after several weeks delay from the Lead Letter Office, I had addressed it to Bar Harbor, Me. instead of St. Andrews, Florida, by mistake, of course. Then I wrote you in October again that I would buy the Rhodes place. My brother was here at our house at the time I wrote you, and it is now December 28, and I have no deed although I paid the price several weeks ago. Well that does not matter so much, but the thing that puzzles me until I am at last writing you is this:

When you and I first corresponded in regard to this matter last summer at Fort Hope, you wrote me that you would sell the Rhodes place on the Bay which contained seven or eight acres of land, a house, (Of course, I knew the house did not amount to much) several oak trees, and several southern fruit trees, and fifty three acres of land ^{want} for $600⁰⁰. Well, I thought I did not, the acreage, and asked the price of the Rhodes home on the Bay with the trees, and frontage, the whole of the place, and your letter states that you will not sell it less than $400⁰⁰. Well, again, I finally decided to take the place, and have taken all the necessary steps to purchase it, but my brother wrote me that my deed calls for four acres instead of the original seven or eight. In and of your letter, you said ~~six~~ or ~~seven~~ acres. Now you will see that I cannot but wonder, and wish an explanation of why the number of acres I dwindled from "seven or eight" or ~~six~~ or ~~seven~~ down to four.

Have I been sold all the acreage that the Rhodes place contained when you first offered it to me for four hundred dollars?

I have waited and waited before writing, because I have been ready to start for Florida for the past two months any day that mother's health would permit my leaving for a short time. I still intend going just as soon as possible, but meantime will you please write me an explanation of what you will see is bothering me.

My brother is taking care of the recording of the deed, so it will come all right.

Do not think that I am greedy. It is merely that I am not receiving what I bargained to keep, and it is not what I am accustomed to meeting.)

Sincerely,
Cora E. Bright.

This letter is written in the kindest of moods, but it may not read that way, as spoken words convey the meaning, that written words do not reflect.
